Calling All Emerging Brands

This year we will be hosting our third annual Emerging Companies Contest. Selected contestants will be allowed to display a table of their product(s) during the networking and cocktail hour. Guests will be able to stop by each table and vote for their favorite company. The number of contestants is limited and will be chosen based on the quality of responses in their entry form and on a first come, first serve basis. The winner will receive a $2500 prize! If you or someone you know is interested in participating, please fill out the form on our event landing page.
